DESCRIPTION:

JM Family Enterprises does not yield to political activism in shaping corporate governance, preventing initiatives that potentially alienate consumers, divide employees, and harm shareholders. The company implements race and identity-based policies that replace merit, excellence, and integrity with preferential treatment and outcomes. Overall, JM Family Enterprises does not embrace corporate initiatives that redirect its central focus from business goals to partisan policies and divisive issues. This approach protects free exercise, free speech, and free enterprise.

Corporate Weaponization

Has canceled customers, suppliers, or vendors due to their political views or religious beliefs OR corporately boycotts, divests, or sanctions regions, people groups, or industries. Lower Risk

JM Family has not publicly canceled customers, suppliers, or vendors based on political views or religious beliefs (1).

Charitable giving (including employee matching programs) policies or practices discriminate against charitable organizations based on views or religious beliefs. Lower Risk

JM Family does not appear to discriminate against charitable organizations based on views or beliefs. The company focuses on funding organizations that support, "Family, Education, and Environment" (1).

Employment policies fail to protect against viewpoint or other discrimination and/or are ideological in nature. Medium Risk

JM Family does not provide viewpoint protections for its employees (1).

Corporate Governance and Public Policy

Uses corporate reputation to support causes, organizations, or policies hostile to freedom of expression. Medium Risk

JM Family supports DEI within its business practices. It hosted multiple DEI town halls, offered a DEI-focused book club, and celebrated Inclusion and Belonging Week (1).

Uses corporate funds to advance ideological causes, organizations, or policies hostile to freedom of expression. High Risk

JM Family donated over a million dollars in DEI-focused contributions and has pledged donations to racial equality (1)(2). The company is a member of the MCCA, indicating its focus on recruiting, retaining, and promoting employees based on race (3)(4). Otherwise, there are no publicly known cases of JM Family using corporate funds to advance ideological causes, organizations, or policies (5).

Uses corporate reputation to support causes, organizations, or policies hostile to freedom of expression. Lower Risk
