

Elevance Health (Anthem)

Subsidiaries: Amerigroup

Locations: Indiana (HQ)

Industries: Health Care Equipment and Services

RISK LEVEL:

Medium Risk

DESCRIPTION:

Elevance Health scored a 75 on the 2023 Corporate Equality Index (CEI) from the Human Rights Campaign (HRC), a political stakeholder group. By complying with the HRC's controversial demands, Elevance Health increases the risk of dividing employees, alienating customers and harming shareholders. The company covers transgender-related medical costs for its employees and their children and provides specific sexual orientation and gender identity-based benefits. It also uses sex and gender ideology criteria in employee recruitment, vendor selection, marketing, and philanthropic support. Elevance Health forces employees to undergo multiple ideological trainings and uses its reputation, corporate funds, and political influence to support controversial sex and gender ideologies, organizations, and legislation. Elevance Health vets international vendors for LGBTQ policies. The company is a signatory of the Business Roundtable's 2019 Statement on the Purpose of Corporation, which promotes stakeholder capitalism. However, Elevance does not discriminate against charitable organizations based on views or beliefs and has not used its PAC donations for ideological purposes. For these reasons, Elevance Health receives a Medium Risk rating.

Corporate Weaponization

Has denied service to customers, suppliers, or vendors due to their political views or religious beliefs OR corporately boycotts, divests, or sanctions regions, people groups, or industries. Medium Risk

Elevance Health promotes divisive sex and gender policies. Its Supplier Code of Conduct requires international vendors to include sexual orientation and gender identity in their nondiscrimination policy (1). However, Elevance Health has not publicly fired customers, suppliers, or vendors based on political views or religious beliefs.

Charitable giving (including employee matching programs) policies or practices discriminate against charitable organizations based on views or religious beliefs. Lower Risk

Elevance Health does not discriminate against charitable organizations based on views or beliefs. The Elevance Health Foundation "strives to improve the health of humanity by addressing health inequalities and strengthening our communities in America" (1).

Employment policies fail to protect against discrimination based on political affiliation/views and/or religion. High Risk

Elevance Health received a score of 75 on the 2023 Corporate Equality Index (CEI) from the Human Rights Campaign (HRC). Elevance Health's HRC 2023 CEI rating indicates the company forces employees to attend multiple, controversial trainings on gender identity, sexual orientation, transgender issues, and divisive racial ideology. The company provides gender transition guidelines for its employees and a specific benefits guide with a comprehensive explanation of transgender services funded by the company (1)(2).

The company does not provide viewpoint protections for its employees \(3\).

Corporate Governance and Public Policy

Uses corporate reputation to support ideological causes and/or organizations hostile to freedom of expression. High Risk

Elevance Health's HRC 2023 CEI rating indicates the company agrees to allow a controversial stakeholder group focused on sexual identity issues to dictate marketing or advertising strategy \(1\)\(2\). By doing so, the company risks dividing employees, alienating customers and harming shareholders. Former Anthem CEO, Gali Koziara Boudreaux, signed the Business Roundtable's 2019 Statement on the Purpose of Corporation, which promotes stakeholder capitalism over traditional obligations to shareholders and customers \(3\).

Uses corporate funds to advance ideological causes, organizations, or policies hostile to freedom of expression. High Risk

Elevance Health's HRC 2023 CEI rating indicates the company covers transgender related costs for its employees and their children, including paid short-term leave, puberty blockers, cross-sex hormones, chest surgeries, genital surgeries, medical visits and lab monitoring, travel and lodging. Additionally, the company has pledged philanthropic support of at least one organization or event that promotes sex and gender ideology \(1\)\(2\). By allowing a political stakeholder group to dictate operations, the company increases health care costs and risks dividing employees, alienating customers and harming shareholders. Elevance Health is also a corporate partner of the National LGBT Chamber of Commerce \(3\).

Uses corporate political contributions for ideological, non-business purposes. High Risk

Elevance Health's HRC 2023 CEI rating indicates the company publicly advocated for controversial sex and gender ideology through local, state or federal legislation or initiatives \(1\)\(2\). By allowing a political stakeholder group to dictate operations, the company risks dividing employees, alienating customers and harming shareholders. The company (formerly Anthem) has not used its PAC donations for ideological purposes and does not report on its lobbying at this time \(3\)\(4\)\(5\).
