Locations: United Kingdom (HQ)

Industries: Commercial and Professional Services

RISK LEVEL:

High Risk

DESCRIPTION:

WPP is High Risk. The company yields to political activism in shaping corporate governance, potentially alienating consumers, dividing employees, and harming shareholders. The company implements race and identity-based policies that replace merit, excellence, and integrity with preferential treatment and outcomes. The company embraces corporate initiatives that redirect its central focus from business goals to partisan policies and divisive issues. This approach fails to safeguard free exercise, free speech, and free enterprise.

Corporate Weaponization

Has canceled customers, suppliers, or vendors due to their political views or religious beliefs OR corporately boycotts, divests, or sanctions regions, people groups, or industries. Medium Risk

WPP received a score of 95 on the 2025 Corporate Equality Index (CEI) from the Human Rights Campaign (HRC), a political stakeholder group. The company recruits employees based on sexual identity issues. The company discriminates against vendors that do not promote divisive sex and gender policies, indicating it prioritizes sexual issues over merit (1)(2). VML received a score of 60 on the 2025 Corporate Equality Index (CEI) from the Human Rights Campaign (HRC), a political stakeholder group. The company recruits employees based on sexual identity issues. The company discriminates against vendors that do not promote divisive sex and gender policies, indicating it prioritizes sexual issues over merit (3)(4). The company promotes divisive sex and gender policies. Its Supplier Code of Conduct requires international vendors to include sexual orientation and gender identity in their nondiscrimination policy (5). The company's PGLE membership reflected its commitment to vet business partners based on LGBTQ+ policies (6)(7)(8). However, WPP has not publicly canceled customers, suppliers or vendors based on political views or religious beliefs (9)(10).

Charitable giving (including employee matching programs) policies or practices discriminate against charitable organizations based on views or religious beliefs. High Risk

WPP does not appear to discriminate against charitable organizations based on views or beliefs (1). VML's HRC 2025 CEI rating indicates the company will not donate to non-religious charities unless they embrace controversial sexual identity policies (2)(3). WPP's HRC 2025 CEI rating indicates the company will not donate to non-religious charities unless they embrace controversial sexual identity policies (4)(5).

Employment policies fail to protect against viewpoint or other discrimination and/or are ideological in nature. High Risk

WPP's HRC 2025 CEI rating indicates the company forces employees to attend multiple, controversial trainings on gender identity, sexual orientation, transgender issues, and divisive racial ideology. The company provides gender transition guidelines for its employees and a specific benefits guide with a comprehensive explanation of transgender services funded by the company (1)(2).

Kantar company hosts mandatory unconscious bias training for all employees (3). The company appears to prioritize diversity over merit in its leadership composition. From its 2024 Corporate Governance Report: "The Board Diversity Policy reinforces the Board's ongoing commitment to diversity and aligns with the board diversity principles of the UK Listing Rules and FTSE Women Leaders and Parker reviews on gender and ethnic diversity" (4). The company appears to prioritize diversity over merit in its leadership composition. From its 2023 Sustainability Report: "We are committed to including Certified Diverse Suppliers (CDS) in our purchasing lifecycle, both internally and for the benefit of our clients. We define CDS as minority-owned, women-owned, veteran-owned, LGBTQ-owned, service disabled, historically underutilised and small businesses" (5). The company does not provide viewpoint protections for its employees (6)(7).

Corporate Governance and Public Policy

Uses corporate reputation to support causes, organizations, or policies hostile to freedom of expression.

High Risk

WPP's HRC 2025 CEI rating indicates the company agrees to allow a controversial stakeholder group focused on sexual identity issues to dictate marketing or advertising strategy. By doing so, the company risks dividing employees, alienating customers and harming shareholders (1)(2). WPP's PGLE membership reflects its commitment to "operationalize" company coverage of transgender surgery and treatment, the vetting of business partners based on LGBTQ+ policies, and the financial support of LGBTQ organizations on a global level (3)(4)(5). WPP signed an open letter endorsing the Equality Act, a contentious proposal to amend the 1964 Civil Rights Act by adding sexual orientation and so-called gender identity as protected categories. The legislation would, among other implications, grant biological men access to women-only spaces such as sports teams and public restrooms, and compel healthcare providers to deliver sex-denying healthcare and advocates for "anti-racism", displaying Ibram X. Kendi's "How to be an Antiracist" on its website (6)(7). WPP's subsidiary Burson Cohn & Wolfe (BCW) has signed letters supporting the Equality Act and opposing the Florida Parental Rights in Education Act (8)(9). BCW was part of the Freedom for All Americans coalition, which advocated for federal legislation that would overrule state laws designed to protect girls' sports and similar laws (10). Burson Cohn & Wolfe's Executive VP was ranked 41 in the 2020 Pride Power List after he created the Human Rights Campaign Americans for Marriage Equality campaign (11). BCW's Global President published a statement in support of Black Lives Matter (12). WPP's CEO Mark Read is a signatory to CEOs For Gun Safety (13). During the 2022 Pride Month, VMLY&R, a subsidiary of WPP held a digital event called "Made With Pride" featuring speaker events and LGBTQ employee stories (14). VMLY&R opposed various state and local legislation intended to protect parental rights, girls' sports, bathroom facilities, and gendered spaces (15)(16). VMLY&R opposed legislation in Iowa intended to protect parental rights, girls' sports, bathroom facilities, and gendered spaces (17). VMLY&R opposed the Florida Parental Rights in Education Act, which would prohibit teaching gender identity and sexual orientation to kids in K-3rd grade (18). WPP opposed various state and local legislation intended to protect parental rights, girls' sports, bathroom facilities, and gendered spaces (19). WPP is a member of the "Don't Ban Equality" business coalition, which advocates against any abortion restrictions because they are "bad for business" (20). BCW opposed legislation in Iowa intended to protect parental rights, girls' sports, bathroom facilities, and gendered spaces (21). WPP's CEO, Mark Read, signed the CEO Action for Diversity & Inclusion pledge, which includes a commitment to promote DEI through bias education training in the workplace (22)(23)(24). BCW opposed the Florida Parental Rights in Education Act, which would prohibit teaching gender identity and sexual orientation to kids in K-3rd grade (25). WPP was a contributing member of GARM's Action Guide to Reduce Media Greenhouse Gas Emissions which provides an action plan for media companies to transition to net zero greenhouse gas emissions (26). The company is aligned with the Paris Agreement, which entails a commitment to net zero carbon emissions by 2050 (27). The company is committed to net zero carbon emissions by 2030 (28). The company supports DEI within its business practices. From its 2023 Sustainability Report: "Diversity, equity and inclusion goals are included in our incentive plans for senior executives, and we have also included carbon-reduction targets in incentive plans for Executive Directors from 2021" (29). The company supports ESG within its business practices. From its 2023 Sustainability Report: "ESG risks are integrated into WPP's risk appetite and tolerance levels as well as our assessment, management and monitoring of principal risks. This includes the business review process, which includes assessing the possibility of winning or losing major business; succession and the addition or loss of a key employee; regulatory changes; sustainability, privacy, diversity and employment; political instability; and changes in accounting or corporate governance practice" (30). WPP scored a 70 out of 100 on the 2023-2024 Corporate Equality Index (CEI) from the Human Rights Campaign (HRC), a political stakeholder group (31)(32).

Uses corporate funds to advance ideological causes, organizations, or policies hostile to freedom of expression. High Risk

WPP and VML provides a benefits package for employees that covers travel/lodging costs for an abortion and transgender medical procedures for covered employees and dependents, including children (1)(2)(3). WPP's HRC 2025 CEI rating indicates the company covers transgender related costs for its employees and their children, including paid short-term leave, puberty blockers, cross-sex hormones, chest surgeries, genital surgeries, medical visits and lab monitoring, travel and lodging. Additionally, the company has pledged philanthropic support of at least one organization or event that promotes sex and gender ideology. By allowing a political stakeholder group to dictate operations, the company increases health care costs and risks dividing employees, alienating customers and harming shareholders (4)(5). VML's HRC 2025 CEI rating indicates the company covers transgender related costs for its employees and their children, including paid short-term leave, puberty blockers, cross-sex hormones, chest surgeries, genital surgeries, medical visits and lab monitoring, travel and lodging. By allowing a political stakeholder group to dictate operations, the company increases health care costs and risks dividing employees, alienating customers and harming shareholders (6)(7).
