

Private: PBS

Subsidiaries: PBS Kids Locations: Virginia (HQ) Industries: Media and Entertainment

DESCRIPTION:

PBS does not provide viewpoint protections for its employees but has not publicly terminated business relationships based on views or beliefs. PBS has been accused of producing children's shows laden with stances on controversial topics, including critical race theory. In addition, though PBS claims to be politically neutral, its news programs demonstrate a political bias on occasion. Its CEO signed the CEO Action for Diversity and Inclusion pledge. For these reasons, PBS earns a Medium Risk rating.

Corporate Weaponization

Has denied service to customers, suppliers, or vendors due to their political views or religious Lower Risk beliefs OR corporately boycotts, divests, or sanctions regions, people groups, or industries.

PBS has not publicly fired customers, suppliers, or vendors based on views or beliefs.

Charitable giving (including employee matching programs) policies or practices discriminate Lower Risk against charitable organizations based on views or religious beliefs.

PBS does not discriminate against charitable organizations based on views or beliefs (1).

Employment policies fail to protect against discrimination based on political affiliation/views High Risk and/or religion.

PBS does not provide viewpoint protections for its employees $(\underline{1})$.

Corporate Governance and Public Policy

Uses corporate reputation to support ideological causes and/or organizations hostile to freedom High Risk of expression.

PBS has been accused integrating stances on contemporary political issues in its episodes of Arthur which has incorporated discussions on racial activism aimed at children ($\underline{1}$)($\underline{2}$). $\underline{3}$)($\underline{45}$)($\underline{6}$). The CEO of PBS has signed the CEO Action for Diversity and Inclusion Pledge ($\underline{7}$). PBS Kids has also posted to its corporate Facebook account, which is targeted mainly towards children, in support of Pride Month ($\underline{8}$).

Uses corporate funds to advance ideological causes, organizations, or policies hostile to freedom Lower Risk of expression.

PBS has not used corporate funds to advance ideological causes, organizations, or policies.

Uses corporate political contributions for ideological, non-business purposes.

N/A

PBS has a PAC but the company is not legally permitted to make political donations (1)(2).

The contents of this website and related resources (collectively, the "materials") are general in nature and intended for educational use only. Nothing in the materials or any other 1792 Exchange content constitutes legal or professional advice for any specific matter. Anyone seeking legal or professional advice should obtain such advice from competent counsel. Since individual circumstances vary, anyone reviewing the materials and/or any other 1792 Exchange content is strongly urged to obtain specific legal and/or other professional advice before acting or refraining from acting based on such materials or other 1792 Exchange content. 1792 Exchange accepts no responsibility for any loss or damage, howsoever incurred, which may result from accessing or relying on the materials or any other 1792 Exchange content. Further, 1792 Exchange disclaims, to the fullest extent permitted by law, all liability for any acts or omissions based on the materials or any other 1792 Exchange content.

USER AGREEMENT: Company reports and other resources are intended only for the private educational use of the registered user. Republishing and distributing reports and resources is strictly prohibited. By downloading reports and resources, the user accepts these conditions.

© 1792 Exchange 2023