

Compagnie de Saint-Gobain

Subsidiaries: Saint-Gobain Corp.
Locations: France (HQ)
Industries: Capital Goods, Materials

RISK LEVEL:

High Risk

DESCRIPTION:

By complying with Human Rights Campaign's controversial demands, Compagnie de Saint-Gobain (Saint-Gobain) increases the risk of dividing employees, alienating customers and harming shareholders. The company covers transgender-related medical costs for its employees and their children and provides specific sexual orientation and gender identity-based benefits. It also uses sex and gender ideology criteria in employee recruitment, vendor selection, marketing, and philanthropic support. Saint-Gobain forces employees to undergo multiple ideological trainings and uses its reputation, corporate funds, and political influence to support controversial sex and gender ideologies, organizations, and legislation. Saint-Gobain has signed the CEO Action for Diversity and Inclusion pledge and attempted to influence America to re-enter the Paris Climate Accords. For these reasons, Saint-Gobain receives a High Risk rating.

Corporate Weaponization

Has denied service to customers, suppliers, or vendors due to their political views or religious beliefs OR corporately boycotts, divests, or sanctions regions, people groups, or industries. Medium Risk

Saint-Gobain received a score of 90 on the 2023 Corporate Equality Index (CEI) from the Human Rights Campaign (HRC), a political stakeholder group. The company recruits employees based on sexual identity issues. The company discriminates against vendors that do not promote divisive sex and gender policies, indicating it prioritizes sexual issues over merit (1)(2).

Charitable giving (including employee matching programs) policies or practices discriminate against charitable organizations based on views or religious beliefs. High Risk

Saint-Gobain (1)(2).

Employment policies fail to protect against discrimination based on political affiliation/views and/or religion. High Risk

Saint-Gobain HRC 2023 CEI rating indicates the company forces employees to attend multiple, controversial trainings on gender identity, sexual orientation, transgender issues, and divisive racial ideology. The company provides gender transition guidelines for its employees and a specific benefits guide with a comprehensive explanation of transgender services funded by the company (1)(2). Saint-Gobain does not provide viewpoint protections for its employees (3).

Corporate Governance and Public Policy

Uses corporate reputation to support ideological causes and/or organizations hostile to freedom of expression. High Risk

Saint-Gobain's HRC 2023 CEI rating indicates the company agrees to allow a controversial stakeholder group focused on sexual identity issues to dictate marketing or advertising strategy (1)(2). By doing so, the company risks dividing employees, alienating customers and harming shareholders. The company has committed to the CEO Action for Diversity and Inclusion pledge (3). Saint-Gobain was a part of the We Are Still In organization, whose goal was to re-enter the United States into the Paris Climate Accords after former President Donald Trump exited the agreement pending renegotiation, as well as many other environmental policy organizations (4).

Uses corporate funds to advance ideological causes, organizations, or policies hostile to freedom of expression. High Risk

Saint-Gobain indicates the company covers transgender related costs for its employees and their children, including paid short-term leave, puberty blockers, cross-sex hormones, chest surgeries, genital surgeries, medical visits and lab monitoring, travel and lodging. Additionally, the company has pledged philanthropic support of at least one organization or event that promotes sex and gender ideology (1)(2). By allowing a political stakeholder group to dictate operations, the company increases health care costs and risks dividing employees, alienating customers and harming shareholders.

Uses corporate political contributions for ideological, non-business purposes. High Risk

Saint-Gobain's HRC 2023 CEI rating indicates the company publicly advocated for controversial sex and gender ideology through local, state or federal legislation or initiatives (1)(2). By allowing a political stakeholder group to dictate operations, the company risks dividing employees, alienating customers and harming shareholders. Saint-Gobain's lobbying has been done primarily through trade organizations, and the spending has been business-focused and non-ideological (3).
