DESCRIPTION:

Amundi is an asset management company headquartered in Paris, France. Amundi is the result of the 2010 merger between the asset management activities of Societe Generale and Credit Agricole, and Credit Agricole maintains a 70% stake in Amundi. Amundi provides protections against political viewpoint discrimination and has not publicly dismissed business partners due to ideological differences. Amundi has not funded ideological groups hostile to freedom of expression, though the company does require its employees to engage in mandatory unconscious bias training. The company's lobbying has been bipartisan and business-focused in nature. For these reasons, Amundi receives a Lower Risk rating.

Corporate Weaponization

Has denied service to customers, suppliers, or vendors due to their political views or religious beliefs OR corporately boycotts, divests, or sanctions regions, people groups, or industries. Lower Risk

Amundi has not publicly terminated business relationships due to ideological differences.

Charitable giving (including employee matching programs) policies or practices discriminate against charitable organizations based on views or religious beliefs. High Risk

Amundi will not match employee donations to organizations with any religious affiliation (1).

Employment policies fail to protect against discrimination based on political affiliation/views and/or religion. Lower Risk

Amundi provides protections from political viewpoint discrimination (1).

Corporate Governance and Public Policy

Uses corporate reputation to support ideological causes and/or organizations hostile to freedom of expression. Medium Risk

Amundi requires unconscious bias training for managers and employees (1). Amundi US also offers several ESG-focused investment funds, though the company still offers its traditional funds (2).

Uses corporate funds to advance ideological causes, organizations, or policies hostile to freedom of expression. Lower Risk

Amundi has not corporately funded ideological groups hostile to freedom of expression.

Uses corporate political contributions for ideological, non-business purposes. Lower Risk

Amundi has not used its lobbying funds for ideological purposes \(1\).
