DESCRIPTION:

Parker Hannifin often yields to political activism in shaping corporate governance, potentially alienating consumers, dividing employees, and harming shareholders. The company implements race and identity-based policies that replace merit, excellence, and integrity with preferential treatment and outcomes. Parker Hannifin occasionally embraces corporate initiatives that redirect its central focus from business goals to partisan policies and divisive issues at times. This approach fails to safeguard free exercise, free speech, and free enterprise.

Charitable giving (including employee matching programs) policies or practices discriminate against charitable organizations based on views or religious beliefs. High Risk

Employment policies fail to protect against viewpoint or other discrimination and/or are ideological in nature. High Risk

From its 2023 Sustainability Report: "Our Corporate Governance Guidelines require that each Director search includes individuals of diverse backgrounds, including diversity of gender, ethnicity and race." Parker Hannifin offers DEI training to its leadership (3).
