

Home Depot

Locations: Georgia (HQ)
Industries: Retailing

RISK LEVEL:

High Risk

DESCRIPTION:

Home Depot is High Risk. The company yields to political activism in shaping corporate governance, potentially alienating consumers, dividing employees, and harming shareholders. Home Depot embraces corporate initiatives that redirect its central focus from business goals to partisan policies and divisive issues. This approach fails to safeguard free exercise, free speech, and free enterprise.

Corporate Weaponization

Has canceled customers, suppliers, or vendors due to their political views or religious beliefs OR corporately boycotts, divests, or sanctions regions, people groups, or industries. Medium Risk

Home Depot received a score of 45 on the 2025 Corporate Equality Index (CEI) from the Human Rights Campaign (HRC), a political stakeholder group. The company recruits employees based on sexual identity issues. The company discriminates against vendors that do not promote divisive sex and gender policies, indicating it prioritizes sexual issues over merit (1)(2). However, Home Depot has not publicly canceled customers, suppliers, or vendors based on political views or religious beliefs (3).

Charitable giving (including employee matching programs) policies or practices discriminate against charitable organizations based on views or religious beliefs. High Risk

Home Depot's HRC 2025 CEI rating indicates the company will not donate to non-religious charities unless they embrace controversial sexual identity policies (1)(2). The company does not appear to discriminate against charitable organizations based on views or beliefs (3).

Employment policies fail to protect against viewpoint or other discrimination and/or are ideological in nature. High Risk

Home Depot does not provide viewpoint protections for its employees (1). The company requires all associates complete training on unconscious bias (2).

Corporate Governance and Public Policy

Uses corporate reputation to support causes, organizations, or policies hostile to freedom of expression. High Risk

Home Depot signed an open letter in support of the Equality Act, a controversial bill (1). The company also advertised flyers to its employees about confronting their "white privilege, Christian privilege, heterosexual privilege, able-bodied privilege," etc. (2). Home Depot supports ESG within its business practices (3). CEO Ted Decker is a member of the Business Roundtable and Former CEO Craig Menear signed its 2019 Statement on the Purpose of a Corporation, which promotes stakeholder capitalism over traditional obligations to shareholders (4)(5). Home Depot's former CEO, Craig Menear, signed the CEO Action for Diversity & Inclusion pledge, which includes a commitment to promote DEI through bias education training in the workplace (6)(7).

Uses corporate funds to advance ideological causes, organizations, or policies hostile to freedom of expression. High Risk

Home Depot's HRC 2025 CEI rating indicates the company covers transgender related costs for its employees and their children, including paid short-term leave, puberty blockers, cross-sex hormones, chest surgeries, genital surgeries, medical visits and lab monitoring, travel and lodging. By allowing a political stakeholder group to dictate operations, the company increases health care costs and risks dividing employees, alienating customers and harming shareholders (1)(2). The Home Depot pledged $15 million to BLM and related causes and has partnered with the HRC, Rainbow PUSH Coalition, and the National Urban League (3)(4)(5). The company is also a corporate partner of the National LGBT Chamber of Commerce (6).

Uses corporate political actions and/or financial contributions for ideological, non-business purposes. High Risk

The Home Depot has donated to the Equality PAC and lobbied for the Equality Act (1)(2)(3).
