DESCRIPTION:

Milliman Financial Services (Milliman) does not yield to political activism in shaping corporate governance, preventing initiatives that potentially alienate consumers, divide employees, and harm shareholders. The company implements race and identity-based policies that replace merit, excellence, and integrity with preferential treatment and outcomes. Overall, Milliman does not embrace corporate initiatives that redirect its central focus from business goals to partisan policies and divisive issues. This approach protects free exercise, free speech, and free enterprise.

Corporate Weaponization

Has canceled customers, suppliers, or vendors due to their political views or religious beliefs OR corporately boycotts, divests, or sanctions regions, people groups, or industries. Lower Risk

Milliman has not publicly canceled customers, suppliers, or vendors based on political views or religious beliefs (1).

Charitable giving (including employee matching programs) policies or practices discriminate against charitable organizations based on views or religious beliefs. Lower Risk

Milliman does not appear to discriminate against charitable organizations based on views or beliefs. The company focuses on funding "healthcare, education, and economic development" (1).

Employment policies fail to protect against viewpoint or other discrimination and/or are ideological in nature. Lower Risk

Milliman protects its employees against viewpoint discrimination (1).

Corporate Governance and Public Policy

Uses corporate reputation to support causes, organizations, or policies hostile to freedom of expression. Medium Risk

Milliman hosts online classes on "cross-cultural considerations, unconscious bias, understanding gender identity, and creating a more inclusive workplace" for its employees (1). Otherwise, there are no publicly known cases of Milliman using its reputation to advance ideological causes or policies (2).

Uses corporate funds to advance ideological causes, organizations, or policies hostile to freedom of expression. Lower Risk

Milliman has not used corporate funds to advance ideological causes, organizations, or policies (1).

Uses corporate political actions and/or financial contributions for ideological, non-business purposes. N/A
